

MINISTERS

Commissioned ministers affirm that their personal Christian faith is in harmony with the cardinal doctrines of Volunteers of America.

Individually and collectively, ministers are called to:

Celebrate and administer the sacraments

Honor the ecumenical view of different approaches to Christianity and be dedicated to the interfaith offering of our service

Lead and participate in formal worship

Actively participate in formal worship

Actively participate in the local ministry plan

Be a servant leader and teacher

Be a shepherd and accept the pastoral role
